F. William McNabb III is Chief Executive Officer and President of Vanguard, and Chairman of the Board of Directors and the Vanguard Funds' Board of Trustees. He succeeded John J. Brennan as CEO, and is only the third since John Bogle founded the now $1.2 trillion money management giant over 35 years ago.

Bill assumed the helm of the company at the height of the turmoil in the equity and credit markets in 2009. Having successfully navigated through those storms he now has charted a course for the company's future.

Bill has been with Vanguard since 1986, serving in several senior management roles and leading each of Vanguard's client-facing business divisions. He previously was Managing Director of Vanguard Institutional Investor Group and oversaw Vanguard's institutional and international businesses.

He is active in the investment management industry, having testified before the U.S. Department of Labor as well as the U.S. House of Representatives. He is also a member of the Board of Trustees of the Employee Benefit Research Institute. Bill earned an A.B. at Dartmouth College and an M.B.A. at The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.
